

and wards will receive every attention that will render their connection with the school pleasant and profitable. The government is parental, and only such rules are adopted as are necessary to cherish in the pupils those habits of order, regularity and industry which tend to promote our comfort as a family.

The Principal regards himself as having been peculiarly fortunate in securing the services of teachers of acknowledged ability and fidelity in their various departments. The Musical department is under the direction of Prof. SCHNEIDER, whose acquirements and skill as an instructor, have been so thoroughly tested, that he is believed to have no superior.

Pupils are not allowed to make store accounts without previous permission from their parents or guardians. Where it is impracticable for them to draw their supplies from home, experience has shown that it would be better to make a deposit with the Principal for this purpose.
